The wrestling match between Frank Meier and Louis Leafner, which came off at the Vaudeville theatre Saturday night was won by the former, who got the first fall in two minutes and thirty seconds and the second in six minutes and thirty seconds. POLICE COURT.

Several Cases Disposed of by Mayor McComb.

There were four victims before Mayor McComb in police court this morning—J. B. Raymond, John McIntyre, John Gleason and Archie Baker.

McIntyre was with Raymond when arrested, and is thought to have stolen the pair of gloves that were in the pockets of the coat. He will be held while the police try to locate the missing gloves.

John Gleason, of Sharon, Pa., arrested Saturday night by Policeman Patton, is thought to be the same man who escaped from Officer Barker the same night. He, however, denied this, and will be held until tonight for Barker to identify.

Archie Baker, who was arrested for drunkenness, was fined $2 and sentenced to five days in prison.

MISSING.

J. D. Wilkes of This City Disappears from St. Louis.

He Was There on Business and Was Last Seen on Tuesday-Fall Suspected.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 6.—(Special.) Last Tuesday J. D. Wilkes, traveling representative of the Lima, O., Register Co., left his apartments at the Stoddard House here.

The following day a telegram was received from East St. Louis, stating that Wilkes was going east. Telegrams from Lima state that he has not arrived there, and inquiry at East St. Louis shows that Wilkes has not been there.

The police are inclined to believe that Wilkes has met with foul play, and that the telegrams were sent to throw the officers off the track.

WILKES TOOK A POSITION

with the Lima Register Company in September last and left here on the 27th of that month on his trip. He went to Richmond, Ind., then to Indianapolis and back into Ohio, stopping at Cincinnati. From that city he went to Louisville and then over to St. Louis. He did business in all the towns for both the register company and Melville & Little, for whom he sold their patent attachment to street car tracks to protect fire hose in case of fire.

He wrote to both his wife and the people for whom he was doing business, regularly. The Register company received a letter from him on the 14th of last month. This letter was the last one the company received from him, but on following day a telegram was received from him in reference to some business.

Mrs. Wilkes received a letter from him about the same time, in which he alluded to the fact that he would go to Memphis, Tenn., from St. Louis, and for her to send his mail to St. Louis. This was the last heard from him. Mr. Melville wrote him a letter at St. Louis, afterward and, as it was not returned, Wilkes

MUST HAVE RECEIVED IT.

Wilkes was a man aged about thirty-six years and was formerly connected with the Thompson-Houston Electric Light company, and was with Silvery when he had his ship in operation here.

He was married several years ago while living in Toledo, to Mrs. Anna Sanford and since they have returned from Georgetown, where they lived for some time, have been living with her mother, Mrs. Dowling, at 765 West High street.

In speaking of the affair this morning, Mr. Rose, of the Register Company, said that he had known Wilkes for over seven years and that he was an honest and square man as he ever knew.

He said that Wilkes contemplated buying an interest in the plant. He had only a small sum of money on his person when he left Lima. He took with him about $100 and $125 was sent to him when he was in Louisville. His wife is almost prostrated but has not yet given up hope for his being found all right, although there does not seem to be very much chance of such being the case, as it is three weeks to-morrow since any word was received from him.

A fashion item from Paris says theatre hats and bonnets are not much larger than the wearer's head. Hully gee!

The Toledo Commercial has the following to say of Father O'Brien, of Cleveland, whose place Rev. Father O'Leary, of this city, has been delegated to fill:

"The reverend father is much thought of by his people, and he has accomplished a great deal that is of benefit, they say, since he assumed the charge a few years ago. The sole cause of his resignation is ill health. He is afflicted with rheumatism, contracted during his recent European tour.

"While journeying from Mt. Carmel to Jerusalem on horseback, sleeping in tents at night, the priest and his party were caught in a five days' steady rain. The severity of the weather caused the death of 150 Russian pilgrims out of 1,000 who were making the journey on foot.

Father O'Brien was ill four months in the old country, and has been obliged to take to a sick bed twice since coming home. He will probably be assigned a country parish that will be much smaller than his present one, and it is hoped he will there recover his health under the less arduous duties.

This afternoon John Anderson received a telegram from Topeka, Kansas, stating that his brother, L. H. Anderson, formerly of Lima, died there yesterday. The funeral services will be held to-morrow.

THE FIRST PREMIUM

Anheuser-Busch Carry Off the Blue Ribbon at the World's Fair.

The great plant of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Company, of St. Louis, may now be appropriately decorated with miles of blue ribbon. It has had conferred upon it the highest honor in the power of the World's Fair Jury on Awards to confer, and the prize for the best beer placed upon the market goes to the St. Louis establishment, the product of which is known the world over.

Out of the hundreds of competitors for the premium and out of hundreds of the finest displays of brewers from all parts of the United States, the Columbian jury selected the amber fluid exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch company as the most deserving and the most fitting to receive the highest prize. That the awarding of this honor to the St. Louis establishment showed excellent judgment on the part of the members of the jury, who are experts in this particular line, is a foregone conclusion, and that the great honor was well deserved goes without saying. For years the beer turned out of the Anheuser-Busch plant has been held in the highest esteem by the beer-drinking public. It possesses all of the good qualities which make the beverage a popular one and none of the bad qualities which tend to provoke unfavorable criticism.

The magnitude of the honor conferred upon this firm's product can hardly be appreciated by those not familiar with the facts. No other concern received so many points of approval for the good qualities of its product as did the Anheuser-Busch Association, and it can justly claim to be the leader of American beer producers. The different kinds of beer placed upon the market by this establishment are most favorably known to the American people, and their general opinion is only confirmed by this award. It has always been the object of the Anheuser-Busch brewers to make beer as good as possible—not as cheap as possible—and on this principal a world-wide reputation has been gained, in addition to the commendation of the public at large which indulges in the favorite beverage.

No corn or other adulterants have ever been used in the manufacture of the Anheuser-Busch beer. It is the highest priced beer in the country, but at the same time it is the cheapest for the quality. It is used not only in the best families in the country, but also in the best clubs, private and public. The Pullman and Wagner palace sleeping cars always have their buffets well stocked with the Anheuser-Busch beer. All of the leading hotels and cafes have it on their wine lists. The United States army has it at all of the camps throughout the country, and not a ship of the United States navy leaves port without a full supply. Physicians recommend it to their convalescing patients, and, in fact, it has become the favorite drink of the nation. Too much can not be said in praise of the Anheuser-Busch beer.

which has been pronounced by the most competent judges the premier beer of the country, and which well deserves the honor paid it.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"Side Tracked."

"Side Tracked" a very bright and original comedy drama, will be seen at the opera house to-night.

Mr. Jule Walters, a clever comedian of much merit and strength, will be seen as Xerxes Horatio Booth, the tramp. The mechanical devices this season are an entire novelty. The management has the entire right of the famous Columbian dance, introduced by Louise Lewellyn, a most graceful and charming dancer. "Side Tracked" should be well attended.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Penrose Herring: One of the Pioneers of Allen County Dies at His Home in German Township.

Penrose Herring died suddenly at his home yesterday at 11 o'clock a. m. He had been at Lima on Saturday and returned late in the evening. He ate a hearty supper and retired for the night. As he did not rise at the usual hour in the morning his wife asked him if he was sick. He replied in the negative and said that he desired to be left alone. At ten o'clock he arose and after dressing himself walked about the house apparently in search of something, possibly his pipe and tobacco. He appeared to be in a sulky mood, asked no questions and allowed no one to say anything to him. As he was subject to such spells, the family thought nothing strange of his action. After wandering about the house for a few minutes in this manner he sat down in a chair, dropped his head upon his breast then fell from the chair to the floor a corpse.

The deceased was born and raised in German township and was about 83 years old at the time of his death. Through his industry and economy, he amassed a snug little fortune consisting of about seven hundred acres of choice land located principally on the west bank of Hog Creek between Allentown and Elida. He leaves a widow and eight children as follows: William, Mrs. John Red, Amos, George, Mrs. John Burget, Charles, James, Bertha and Samuel. He also leaves three brothers and four sisters as follows: Clifton, West Cairo, O.; Jacob, Rochester, Ind.; Rev. W. M. Leatherwood, Pa.; Mrs. George Kistler, Elida, O.; Emeline, Springfield, O.; Eliza, Sidney, O., and Anna, Evansville, O.

The funeral will be held at the Allentown M. E. church, on Wednesday at 10 o'clock a. m. The remains will be interred in Greenlawn cemetery.

The Many Friends

Of genial John Summers would not think him guilty of anything unconventional or villainous, but he is, if you don't believe it, go and see him at Favrot's opera house next Wednesday night.
